Opening the door, I herd a loud noise. looking around, all I could see was dark skies and grey dust. Out of no where something loomes in the distance. Bloody marry appears covered in blood waiting for her next attack. Turned and ran as she reached out I could feel her nails dig into my skin feeling of her blood drizzle down my arm. I started to scream, once more she grabbed me feeling the icy night as she ripped my shirt. I fell to the ground fighting for my freedom I manage to break loose. And out of the distance I herd someone scream my name judy, JUDY, judy it was my mom down stairs it was time for breakfast. Then I head off to school but when I come home I see her looking at me. I run straight to the house frightened and about to stumble down. All I hear behind me is "I'm coming for you" I'll get you eventually I fall to the ground wishing I didn't fall I turn around and BAM" she is standing right in front of me. Up to this day I still have night mares
